ACTION TAKEN REPORT FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2021 - 2022

EMPLOYER FEEDBACK ON ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE AND INSTITUTION AMBIENCE

VITW is affiliated to JNTUK, KAKINADA and the college conforms to the academic curriculum designed by the board of studies at the University. Board of studies restructures and frames curriculum by taking suggestions and remarks from the principals of affiliated colleges through conducting meetings before designing the curriculum.

Every year, Institution obtains feedback on the curriculum design and development, academic performance and institution ambience from various stakeholders. The feedback is summarized and analyzed at college academic meetings in the institution. Owing to the feedback requirements, institution planned as follows:

- To conduct additional number of enhanced coding courses to meet the industrial needs
- To organize a string of personality development programs to inculcate professional ethics and team work qualities
- Advised faculty to extensively use ICT tools
- To invite industry experts widely for mentoring students
- To conduct training programs to groom domain skills and soft skills of the students
- Recommendations regarding curriculum are conveyed to the University by the Principal through attending meetings in the University.
